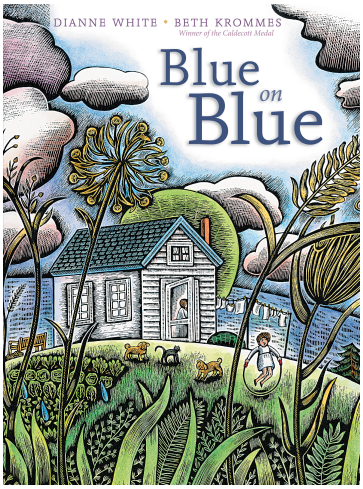
DIANNE WHITE has lived and traveled around the world and now calls Arizona home. She holds a Multiple Subjects Bilingual Teaching Credential and a Master's in Language and Literacy. In 2007, she received her MFA in Writing for Children and Young Adults from Vermont College of Fine Arts.



After teaching students of all ages for 25 years, Dianne now writes full-time. Her first picture book, BLUE ON BLUE, illustrated by 2009 Caldecott winner, Beth Krommes, was published by Beach Lane Books (S&S) December, 2014.